A New Railroad.

The days of building great lines of railway are about over and railroad building of the present day is mainly devoted to the further development of the systems already existing, or short lines to open some particular local territory. A short but important road is that to be constructed from Pikeville to the Virginia line. It will be called the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio road. At Pikeville it will connect with the Big Sandy branch of the C. & O. and at the other end with the Virginia and West Virginia system. It will give the C. & O. a Southern outlet to the sea and will give to the Eastern Kentucky mountains another outlet for their rich products.

Night on Bald Mountain.

On a lonely night Alex Benton, of Fort Edward, N. Y., climbed Bald Mountain to the home of a neighbor, tortured by asthma, bent on curing him with Dr. King's New Discovery, that had cured himself of asthma. This wonderful medicine soon relieved and quickly cured his neighbor. Later it cured his son's wife of a severe lung trouble. Millions believe it the greatest Throat and lung cure on earth. Coughs, Colds, Croup, Hemorrhages and Sore Lungs are surely cured by it. Best for Hay Fever, Grip and Whooping Cough. 50 cents and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Oberdorfer, the druggist.

Creamery Plant Sold.

The Paris Novelty Manufacturing Company has purchased of M. B. Taft Entertains Warring Factions

President Taft brought representatives of all the warring factions in the lower House of Congress together Friday night at the first formal dinner he and Mrs. Taft have given at the White House. The personnel of the guest list was something of a tribute to the President's capabilities as a diplomat and his ambitions as a peacemaker.

Representative Clark, Democratic leader of the House; Representative Fitzgerald, of New York, the Democrat who broke away from his party in the notable fight on the House rules; Representative A. P. Gardner, of Massachusetts, "Insurgent" leader among the Republicans in the House, and Representative Payne, of New York, and Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, stalwart members of the so-called "Cannon machine," were among the noted figures about the table set in the state dining room. The decorations were Kilmer roses.

The dinner was the largest the President and Mrs. Taft have yet given.

Look at This.

We submit designs and estimates on all kinds of interior decorations. Our decorations are at your command. We feature original ideas; we employ competent decorators only. There is nothing too elaborate from the plainest to the highest degree of art and our prices are reasonable.

A SPRING VERDICT

by the housewife is to have a new bathroom fitted up in the home. Health should always be the first consideration for the family, and the daily bath is Hygieia's best aid. If you haven't a bathroom in your home we will fit up any room in the house that you may appoint at a reasonable cost. Do this while your Spring house cleaning is in progress.

STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES.

—The members of the Kentucky Racing Commission will hold a meeting in Lexington next Thursday, April 1, to determine the date of the race meetings this year in the State.

—A mare belonging to J. A. Wagoner, of near Paris, who lives on the Cynthiana pike, on Thursday foaled a mule colt with seven feet. The hind feet were normal but one front leg had two distinct feet and the other had three feet. The colt died.

—Ida M. Tarbell says the tariff on hides makes it necessary for the American people to pay $30,000,000 a year more for their shoes than they would have to expend if the raw material for leather were admitted free. The man who has to buy shoes for three or four active boys will regard Miss Tarbell's statement as a very strong argument in favor of having hides taken up for immediate consideration when Congress begins revising the tariff.

—The high prices received for Jack stock at the recent public sales held in Missouri and elsewhere would indicate that the demand for high-class Jacks in this country is greater than ever before. We cannot recall a time in history when mules demanded such large prices as they do today. Neither the importation of the draft and foreign coach horses, the invention of new and improved farm machinery, the electric car or automobile have detracted from the usefulness of the mule.

—Once more an effort is being made in Congress to abolish the tax on tobacco allowing the sale of leaf tobacco in any quantity without payment of the six cents per pound tax. The bill, or one similar, has three times been passed by the House, and it has often died in the finance committee of the Senate, of which committee Senator Aldrich, closely connected with the tobacco trust, is chairman.

—There is a great deal of complaint from the Southern part of Barren county of havoc to poultry by foxes. About a year ago a mad dog scare in that section almost depopulated the canine family. Since the dogs are all dead, the foxes have appeared in great numbers. They do not wait for night fall, but walk into the yards at any time during the day, catch a hen and make off to the woods.

—To show the farmers of Kentucky that they can increase their wealth by raising alfalfa and using the seed corn recommended by the Agricultural Department, General P. P. Johnson, Adjutant General of Kentucky, has put as many acres as necessary of his fine farm near Lexington at the disposal of the Department to make the tests. He will buy the seed, employ the labor and furnish the land and have the crops cultivated under the direction of the Department.

—Prof. E. S. Goode, of the State Experiment Station, in a lecture delivered before the class in Agriculture of State University shatters the old tradition so firmly established in the South that the turkey buzzard is an innocent and useful scavenger and should be protected from all harm. Prof. Goode, whose lecture was on the subject of hog cholera, declared that the buzzards are among the most active agents in spreading this destructive disease, and that instead of the State having a law to protect them the Legislature should pass an act requiring the destruction of every buzzard in the Commonwealth. Why not bury the dead hogs?

Force to Meet Force.

Force will be met with force in the collection of the railroad tax in Carter, Elliott and Grayson counties, and it is probable that the State troops will be used to help the county officials make the collections.

The payment of the tax which is assessed against these counties, on bonds issued for railroads, is being resisted by these three counties, as well as several other counties in the State, and Gov. Willson has announced that he will force the collection of the tax even to the extent of meeting force with force, and it was stated by Adjutant General P. P. Johnson that it was quite possible that the soldiers might be sent to these counties to force the collection if the civil authorities are resisted.

The Governor and General Johnson were asked about the proposed use of the militia and General Johnson said the soldiers might be sent. It is the policy of Governor Willson, he has said, to enforce the law and he believes that it is his duty to enforce the collection of the judgments against the counties which have defaulted in the payment of the railroad bonds.

The same conditions that prevail in Carter, Elliott and Grayson counties also exist in Green and Taylor counties and probably in still others. The people feel that they never obtained any benefit from the bonds which were issued and they have refused payment on the ground that the railroads never were built.

A Hurry Up Call.

Quick! Mr. Druggist—Quick!—A box of Buckle's Arnica Salve—here's a quarter—for the love of Moses, hurry! Baby's burned himself, terribly—Johnnie cut himself with the axe—Mamie's scalded—Pa can't walk from piles—Billie has boils—and my corns ache. She got it and soon cured all the family. Its the greatest healer on earth. Sold by Oberdorfer, the druggist.

Go With a Rush.

The demand for that wonderful Stomach, Liver and Kidney cure, Dr. King's New Life Pills—is astounding and Oberdorfer, the druggist says he never saw the like. Its because they never fail to cure Sour Stomach, Constipation, Indigestion, Biliousness, Jaundice, Sick Headache, Chills and Malaria. Only 25 cents.

Positive Proof Found.

Positive proof was found Friday at Vincennes, Ind., that Mrs. Russell Culbertson wrote the threatening letters to herself and that she committed suicide. Her own stationery upon which she wrote letters to her husband contains the same water mark as the stationery upon which the threatening missives were found. Her relatives now are convinced that she killed herself.

Piles! Piles! Piles!

Williams' Indian Pile Ointment will cure Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles. It absorbs the humors, allays itching at once, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment is prepared for Piles and itching of the private parts. Sold by druggists, mail 50c and $1.00. Williams' Mfg. Co., Cleveland, O. Sold by L. Oberdorfer.

Denounces Football.

President Eliot, of Harvard, in his annual report again advocates a three-year course for bachelor degrees of arts and science, notes that notwithstanding the hard times gifts to the university amounted to $691,896 and once more denounces football as a demoralizing spectacle and unfit for college sport.

Revokes Roosevelt's Order.

After consideration at the Cabinet meeting Friday President Taft ordered the restoration of marines on board naval vessels upon the same footing that they were before the Roosevelt order, relieving all of them from ship duty was issued some months ago.

Congressmen Get Hot.

In the heat of the tariff debate Friday a personal encounter between Representative Byrd, of Mississippi, and Fordney, of Michigan, was narrowly averted. Mutual explanations and apologies were made later. Mr. Fordney, in his speech, argued for a retention of the Dingley duties on lumber.

Asks for Only $10,000,000.

In view of the deficit in the Treasury, Director North, of the Census Bureau, asks withdrawal of his request for an appropriation of $14,117,000 for the next census and has substituted a request for $10,000,000.

Boost Your Town.

The Madisonville Hustler says: "It is easy but almost inexcusable for a man to run down the place in which he lives—his home town. No talent whatever is required to do this. All that is necessary is to persistently talk about its shortcomings, which usually are few. And to ignore its advantages, which in almost every case are many. The kickers and knockers on their home town would do well to cultivate a little local patriotism, a quality that is too often sadly neglected."

Astounding Vitality of the Turtle.

The vitality of this strange sea creature, the turtle, after decapitation is almost beyond belief. A large turtle was once sent to a hotel in Newcastle. The chef cut the turtle's head off and hung the body upside down to bleed. Twenty-four hours after that turtle knocked down a man cook with one blow of its fin. The green turtle is not a vicious creature to handle, like its snapping Japanese brother, but its fins are very strong, and one blow from them is quite sufficient to break a man's arm.—Wide World Magazine.

An Apprentice.

"Father, what does 'apprenticing' mean?" asked a boy in quest of information.

Father—It means the binding of one to another by agreement, and that one person so bound has to teach the other all he can of his trade or profession, while the other has to watch and learn how things are done and to make himself useful in every way.

Freddie—Then I suppose you're apprenticed to mother, aren't you, dad? And the old man rushed off to catch a train without saying a word.—London Scraps.

Client (entering the office of a newly fledged Yorkshire solicitor)—my next door neighbor has spitefully built a fence close to my dining room windows, thus darkening the entire room. What can I do?

Lawyer—Try lighting the gas. Ten shillings, please!—London Tit-Bits.

Advantage of Red Hair.

An eastern editor is wasting time and space showing that red haired girls need no pity. Of course they don't. Men admire their hair and women envy it. The blond and the brunette have a bit the better of the flame colored girl in a variety of colors they can use. There the superiority ends, for given the proper hue, the one that sets off her crown of red to the best advantage, the bricktop has her sisters "beaten to a frazzle," in the Rooseveltian language. An artistic red haired girl is the most striking and impressive picture that femininity makes.

It's the boy with the carrot locks who deserves sympathy and doesn't get it. Red hair usually goes with a sensitive disposition, and the horrors of the life that a bricktop leads at school and play need a Dante of childhood to set forth. He is the target of all the wit and satire the schoolboy mind can conjure up, the butt of the jokes. Even sympathetic girls get a Roman amphitheater crust over their kind hearts. If they don't indulge in these scarring personalities they laugh at them.—Cleveland Leader.
